Travel abroad – advice against travel from Sweden to all countries extended

Published 13 May 2020

In light of the continued uncertainty regarding international travel due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the MFA has extended the advice against non-essential travel from Sweden to all countries that was decided on 14 March 2020 until 15 July 2020.

For countries or areas to which the MFA had advised against travel before 14 March 2020, these decisions still apply.

The decision to extend the advice against non-essential travel from Sweden to all countries was taken on 13 May 2020. With this extension, the advice against travel applies until 15 July 2020.

For questions from the public please contact the MFA consular department at +46 8 405 92 00.
