Anyone who recovered from coronavirus up to 3 months ago may vaccinate effective Tuesday, 2.3.2021

Share:

Following expert consultation in the Ministry of Health, it was resolved to vaccinate the recovered coronavirus patients' population, for anyone who recovered from coronavirus up to months ago.

Recovered coronavirus patients will receive one vaccine dose upon summoning from the HMOs. Simultaneously, the Ministry of Health has issued a guidance to continue focusing on the vaccination of those aged 50 and older (who are currently vaccinated a ratio of up to 87%) as well as on the vaccination of those unvaccinated from all age groups.

Vaccinations for recovered coronavirus patients will begin tomorrow, Tuesday, 2.3.2021.
